NAU MAI, HAERE MAI

Kia ora koutou! We hope you have all had a wonderful start to 2024. Nathan Homestead Pukepuke has lots of exciting changes on the horizon, with seismic strengthening to take place from July onward. This strengthening project provides a unique opportunity to care for our building and ensure its longevity, so visitors can enjoy it for many more years to come. We are also especially thrilled that it means an elevator can be installed, so visitors with different access needs will be able to reach the first floor.

Although the homestead itself will close, we fully intend on continuing our programmes, and have a range of exciting events, classes, exhibitions, and activities lined up! Our Winter Creative Market is back in June, and this is one not to be missed. Come along and support local makers, artists and artisans and find the perfect gift for someone special, or treat yourself! Our Creative Thursdays talk series, developed in collaboration with South Space, will be taking place in April, May and June, and we have some incredible speakers lined up for this. If you are after some free, live music, our Foyer Concerts are back and will be taking place in April, May and June. Have something that needs fixing? Repair café are onsite in the Nathan Homestead theatre on the third Saturday of each month, so stop by and have your goods fixed free of charge with this amazing community initiative.

If you are after creative inspiration, our Sitting Room and Upstairs galleries remain open for your daily dose of art, right here in Manurewa! And speaking of creative inspiration, we have a range of classes lined up for the upcoming term – from Junior Art to Contemporary Jewellery, raranga (weaving), Tai Chi and more! There is something for everyone.

EXHIBITIONS, SHOWS AND EVENTS

OUR PARENTS' DREAMS 2024 RAYMOND SAGAPOLUTELE

Raymond Sagapolutele is a visual artist and academic based in Manurewa, South Auckland. Sagapolutele, through his parents, has links to Fatuvalu, Saoluafata and Tanugamanono villages in Samoa but was raised in Manurewa for most of his life.

Our Parents' Dreams is a reflective examination of the lived experiences of an artist raised in South Auckland that spans the evolution of his practice over the last ten years. Images that traverse the nocturnal landscapes of South Auckland sit alongside self-portraits that examine the nature of identity and culture as a diasporic Samoan.

CELEBRATING 100 YEARS OF NATHAN HOMESTEAD PUKEPUKE

This exhibition celebrates 100 years since the building of Nathan Homestead Pukepuke in 1925. Designed by architect D B Patterson and constructed by the builder Thomas Clements of Otahuhu, David and Simone Nathan and their family moved into their new home in 1925. The photographs on display focus mainly on the early years 1925 to 1935 when the property was known as 'The Hill' by the Nathan family as a reminder to David Nathan of his school days in Harrow School in England. View rare images before the building and beautiful grounds became a much-used and loved community and cultural centre and park.

EXPRESSIVE ARTISTS OF ST PETER'S SPECIAL SCHOOL

The students of St Peter's Special School have created works in this exhibition that explore storytelling and express their creativity. Students have merged traditional techniques such as painting, collage, gold and silver leafing with unconventional methods and tools such as stencil, string, marbles, and painter's pen.

All the works share the same material, technique and colour, yet all display their unique exploration and interpretation of self-portraiture, organic and abstract themes. Students hope that the works on display will inspire aspiring artists to also use methods and techniques differently as well.

A BRIEF HISTORY

The family firm of L.D. Nathan and Co. was started at Kororareka in the Bay of Islands in 1840 by David Nathan, having left England to settle in the Antipodes. In 1841 he moved to Auckland where he married and developed a successful trading and textile business. The Nathan family have been highly influential in the establishment of New Zealand's Jewish community and many public services we enjoy today.

In 1910, David Nathan and his wife Simone built their summer residence in Manurewa and named the property 'The Hill'. The original wooden villa was destroyed by fire in 1923 and a new permanent residence was rebuilt on the same site in 1925. It included a large estate with a working farm, extensive rose gardens, native bush, ponds and a Norman style water tower, an iconic feature of Manurewa.

In 1964, with the development of the Southern Motorway, the estate was sold to accommodate residential growth in South Auckland. The land around the Nathan home was developed as the Hillpark subdivision, while David Nathan Park and Homestead were held as public assets at the request of the Nathan family. The Nathan House was transformed to accommodate the mayor's office and additional buildings were brought on-site for staff and visitor services. In 1978 Nathan Homestead was handed back to the community as a council-run arts and culture centre.

In 2015 major renovation work commenced to improve the services and unique heritage features of the site, to ensure the centre was able to support the growing needs of our community. In 2017, Te Akitai Waiohua gifted the name Pukepuke (hilly) to David Nathan Park and Homestead, referring to their ancestor, Ihaka Takanini's description of his land when it was sold to the Crown in 1842, a block that included the David Nathan Park. This name further acknowledges 'The Hill', a name affectionately used by the Nathan family for their home in Manurewa, and recognises the contributions of mana whenua and the Nathan family.
