Advice Note: If you are asked to give your written approval to someone's proposed activity as part of their application for a resource consent, you should do the following:

- Request that the applicant (or their representative) explain the proposal clearly and fully to you.
- Study the application and associated plans provided by them in order to understand the effects of the proposed activity. If there are no plans available at this stage, you may wish to wait until they are available.
- Ask the applicant (or their representative) if you have been provided with a copy of the full application, including plans.
- Ask for time to consider the documents if you think you need it.

- Decide whether the proposed activity will adversely affect you or your property. You are entitled to ask the applicant for more information, but you should make a decision about whether you will sign the form or not as promptly as is reasonable in the circumstances. You may suggest amendments to the proposed activity that you consider would reduce the effects on you. If the proposal is amended by the applicant, then you should only sign the amended version of the proposal.
- If you consider that you will be adversely affected by the proposal and do not wish to sign the approval form, you will need to advise the applicant (or their representative).
- If you change your mind after signing this form, you may withdraw your approval at any time before a decision is made on the application by advising the council in writing that your approval is withdrawn.
